Comp. No.	NE12619	Comp. Info	The complainant stated Mr. Curtis Anderson hired Mr. Jerry Riggins to clean old chemicals from the basement of a home that belonged to Mr. Julius Anderson, a former State Entomologist. Mr. Anderson and Mr. Riggins contacted the department to find out what to do with the chemicals. The complainant believes the department told them to leave the chemicals in place, keep them covered and someone would assist them with proper disposal. The complainant then stated on or about May 15, 2006, Mr. Anderson did not want to wait for the department so he hauled all the chemicals to a dump on the property and set them on fire. The complainant believes the chemicals included fertilizer, chloroform, sulfuric acid, DDT and more. The complainant also stated a nearby neighbor confronted Mr. Anderson and Mr. Riggins while they were burning. The neighbor's name is Mr. Tony Langford and he can be reached at (573) 291-5210. The property has been sold to Mark Farrell, but the dump is located on property recently purchased by the Missouri Department of Transportation for a highway expansion project.

Comments On June 28, 2006, Mr. Jacob Cross, an inspector with the SERO, conducted an on site investigation. The property is a corner lot located at the southeast corner of the intersection of Worlow and Myrtle streets in Laclede. The property contains a house at the north end of the property, a small shed toward the middle of the property, and a shop located toward the south of the property. Upon arrival at the property, Mr. Cross was able to make contact with the reported party and granted access to the property. Mr. Cross asked the reported party if he would show Mr. Cross where he was burning. The burned spot is approximately five feet in diameter and is located west of the small shed in the middle of the property. While looking at the contents of the burn pile Mr. Cross observed a bundle of wire . Mr. Cross asked the reported party what the wire was from. The reported party stated the wire is the steel belting from the tire he used to burn the stump and lawn debris. Mr. Cross also observed household trash and pieces of a rubber hose in the ashes. Located next to the small shed Mr. Cross noticed approximately 60 scrap tires. Mr. Cross asked about the tires. The reported party stated the tires were on the property at the time of purchase he did not know how to get rid of them. Mr. Cross then requested to walk around the rest of the property and the reported party granted permission. Upon walking in front of the shop Mr. Cross observed discolored soil and smelled of petroleum products. Upon closer observation, the soil was moist and had an odor of oil and gasoline. Mr. Cross asked the reported party how much oil he dumps on the ground. The reported party stated he does not dump the oil on the ground and what was there "just spills out." Mr. Cross issued an NOV burning tires, improper storage and disposal of scrap tires, and dumping of oil and gasoline on the ground.
Comp. No. NE12704 Comp. Info On June 22, 2006, at 5:00 p.m., the complainant sent an email to the EER stating the reported party was intentionally burning waste tires. The complainant then stated the reported party burns small amounts of tires at a time and the complainant has photographs of fresh tires on a pile. The complainant also stated the reported party has a pile of approximately 100 tires adjacent to the small burn pile. The complainant informed the local Sheriff's office but they were unwilling to assist.
